EVOLUTION OF DEHRA DŪN

Bounded by the Himālayās in the north, the Shiwāik Hills in the south, the Ganga in the east and the Yamuna river in the west, Dehra Dūn is the gateway to beautiful MUSCOORIE and CHAKRĀTA. In legend and lore, Dehra Dūn formed part of the region of Kedarāland, abode of Lord Shiva who gave his name to Shiwāik Hills. Here, Rāma and Lakshman bowed in penance for the killing of the king of Lanka, Ravana. Here came Drona in search of peace, it was then called Drona Ashram-the abode of Drona. Here came the five Pāndavas on their way to the Himālayās to immolate themselves.

In the 17th Century, the Sikhs doubted the bonafides and legitimacy of Guru Rām Rai and drove him from Punjab. He took refuge in the city of Dehra Dūn giving its name Dehra-camp in Doon-Valley. Guru Rām Rai eventually settled here; he arrived on the fifth day after Holi, the event is still annually celebrated by hoisting the 'Jhanda' (flag) on the Guru Rām Rai Gurūdwāra on the same day.

Dehra Dūn is now one of the beautiful towns in Northern India. It boasts of a number of educational institutions of repute such as the DOON SCHOOL, the RASHTRIA INDIAN MILITARY COLLEGE, the INDIAN MILITARY ACADEMY, the FOREST RESEARCH INSTITUTE, to name a few.

The entire valley is full of places of scenic beauty and picnic spots. Some of these are SAHASRADHĀRA, ROBBER'S CAVE, MĀLSI DEER PARK and RĀJĀJI NATIONAL PARK etc.
